

Alcast's Quality Lab received a new Tinius Olsen SR-2 Digital Indicating system today, which replaces the former analog controls and measurement techniques. This system will remove subjectivity caused by user interpretation and provide us with real time Load, Load Rate and Peak Load information on the LCD control screen.